Council member Danny Williams asked about potential restrictions. Town Attorney Mandy Powers Norrell explained that all restrictions are listed in the ordinance and that nothing has changed. She stated that the original request was to rezone this neighborhood, she explained that the new ordinance focuses more on the group home having restrictions in place that will ensure that this home appears to be a "regular home", much like any other home on that street. After discussion, the motion passed with a unanimous vote. 7-0
